Evaluation and Monitoring of Adaptation Actions
Is it doing any good?

Join us Wednesday, September 30, 2015, 10AM PST/ 1PM EST for the quarterly National Adaptation Forum Webinar to learn about climate adaptation evaluation and monitoring examples in the field. Adaptation professionals are looking at ways to integrate monitoring and evaluation into their work to determine what is working and what is not working. Join us to learn about examples of climate adaptation evaluation and monitoring efforts in the field.

The webinar will feature three speakers:

• Rachel M. Gregg, M.M.A., Lead Scientist, EcoAdapt. Is it Doing Any Good?: Monitoring and Evaluating Climate Adaptation Activities.
• Anne Carlson, Ph.D., Climate Associate, The Wilderness Society, Carnivores, water and weeds: Improving the success of climate change response strategies through effective monitoring programs, and

EcoAdapt has one goal - creating a robust future in the face of climate change. EcoAdapt provides support, training, and assistance to make conservation and management less vulnerable and more Climate Savvy. EcoAdapt was founded by a team of some of the earliest adaptation thinkers and practitioners in the field and continues to lead the field in bridging the gap between climate science and management decision-making. www.ecoadapt.org
